Learn to make a King Island-style uġałqaq (or kuspuk)! Adapt and cut a pattern to your size, cut out the pieces and sew together a finished product. By the end of the class you will have made your own custom-sized women’s or men’s uġałqaq. Contact NWC before class starts for a materials list. Students should have a sewing machine to bring to class; however, there are a few sewing machines available at NWC for use during class time.

Marilyn Koezuna-Irelan has been sewing King Island style kuspuks and parkas for many years and has been teaching this course at NWC for many years.
