Plastic & Copper Pipe and Fittings
Last Updated Wednesday, 09 March 2016 12:41

with Cliff McHenry

Thursday through Sunday /April 7th - 10th
-Thurs & Fri: April 7 & 8 / 6-9pm
-Sat & Sun : April 9 & 10/ 9am-4:30pm (with 1/2 hour lunch break)
REGISTER BY: April 2
1 credit / CTT F153 / CRN 40292
Cost: $135 (or $98 if paid in advance)

Introduction to the various types of plastic and copper pipe used in the plumbing industry. Includes various methods of joining plastic and copper pipe and a variety of fittings commonly found in commercial and residential dwellings. Class will be held at the City Shops on 4th Ave (behind Volunteer Fire Department Building)

Cliff McHenry is a skilled carpenter, plumber and jack of all trades. He owns his own business in Nome and has been teaching classes for NWC and NACTEC for a number of years.